

Title VI Complaint Procedure

Any person who believes she or he has been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, or national origin by the City of New London may file a Title VI complaint by completing and submitting the City of New London Title VI Complaint Form. The City of New London investigates complaints received no more than 180 days after the alleged incident. The City of New London will process complaints that are complete.

For complaints related to Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) funded programs, the City of New London will immediately forward the complaint to the Connecticut Department of Transportation (CTDOT).

Complainants may also file a complaint directly with CTDOT:
Connecticut Department of Transportation
Office of Contract Compliance
Attn: Title VI Coordinator
2800 Berlin Turnpike
Newington, CT 06111

Complainants may also file a Title VI complaint with the FHWA:
FHWA Office of Civil Rights
1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE
8th Floor E81-105
Washington, DC 20590

For complaints related to Federal Transit Administration (FTA) funded programs:

Once the complaint is received, the City of New London will review it to determine if our office has jurisdiction. The complainant will receive an acknowledgement letter informing her/him whether the complaint will be investigated by our office. The City of New London will notify the Connecticut Department of Transportation's Title VI Coordinator of any Title VI complaints filed, within 10 business days of receipt.

The City of New London has 60 days to investigate the complaint. If more information is needed to resolve the case, City of New London may contact the complainant. The complainant has 60 business days from the date of the letter to send requested information to the investigator assigned to the case. If the investigator is not contacted by the complainant or does not receive the additional information within 60 business days, the City of New London can administratively close the case. A case can also be administratively closed if the complainant no longer wishes to pursue their case.

After the investigator reviews the complaint, she/he will issue one of two letters to the complainant: a closure letter or a letter of finding (LOF). A closure letter summarizes the allegations and states that there was not a Title VI violation and that the case will be closed. An LOF summarizes the allegations and the interviews regarding the alleged incident, and explains whether any disciplinary action, additional training of the staff member, or any other action will occur. If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision, she/he has 60 days after the date of the letter or the LOF to do so.

A person may also file a complaint directly with the Connecticut Department of Transportation, Office of Contract Compliance, Attn: Title VI Coordinator, 2800 Berlin Turnpike, Newington, CT 06111; or directly with the Federal Transit Administration, at FTA Office of Civil Rights, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20590.
