

Exhibit J – Claims Disclosure

Each firm/bidder is required to disclose information regarding the following: (i) material pending legal proceedings, (ii) material proceedings known to be contemplated by governmental authorities, and (iii) material proceedings to which an officer, director or greater than 5% holder is a party adverse to the firm/bidder. Disclosure is not required for ordinary routine litigation incidental to the business or claims for damages for less than $25,000.

If a disclose is required, provide the following information: (i) name of court or agency, (ii) date instituted, (iii) principal parties, (iv) description of factual basis alleged, and (v) relief sought (VI)Any active matters or matters resolved and how they were resolved within five years of the date of the disclosure.